

The following are draft rules. They may be altered prior to publication in Battles with Miniatures.

New Koralon Troop Type

AraktoBrood

The longer the war with the Koralon continues, the more twisted and malformed the Arakton variants seen in battle.

AraktoBrood is the name given to Araktons with Humanoid torsos, but the snakelike lower bodies of pure strain Koralon.

Although more effective in a close assault than standard Assault Araktons, AraktoBrood do not have their Coraline darts.
